OFFICIAL PAPER OF COUNTY.

H. A. PERKINS, EDITOR.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET

For President,
JAS. A. GARFIELD, of Ohio.
For Vice-President,
CHESTER A. ARTHUR, of New York.
CONGRESSIONAL,
Second District,
DUDLEY C. HASKELL, of Douglas.
SENATORIAL,
Seventeenth District,
E. H. FUNSTON, of Allen.

Republican County Convention.

A delegate convention of the Republican party of Allen county, will be held at Iola, on Saturday, September 11, 1880, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, viz: Clerk of the District Court, Probate Judge, Superintendent Public Instruction, and County Attorney. Also for nominating candidates for Representatives for the 52d and 53d Districts. Also to nominate a candidate for County Commissioner for the First Commissioner District.

The number of delegates from the different townships to the convention will be as follows: Geneva, 4; Deer Creek, 3; Osage, 3; Marmaton, 2; Elm, 2; Iola, 9; Elmore, 3; Salem, 2; Humboldt, 10; Cottage Grove, 4.

It is recommended that primary meetings for the election of delegates in the different townships be held on Tuesday, Sept. 7th, at 7 o'clock P. M. In all the precincts except the townships of Humboldt and Iola, at which places the committees recommend that they meet at 2 o'clock P. M. It is also recommended that the Representative conventions meet directly after the adjournment of the county convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for Representatives for the 52d and 53d Districts.

By order of committee,
H. A. PERKINS, Chairman.
T. C. SHREMAN, Sec'y.

Announcements.

COUNTY ATTORNEY.

Republicans of Allen County—Gentlemen—I respectfully ask the nomination for the office of County Attorney of this county. I came here in 1839, practiced law since 1857; always voted the Republican ticket. In distributing your offices let the whole county share equally, and ignore ring, clique and primary manipulators, who bring punishment, disruption and defeat to our party and principles by locality strife. The majority will rule. Should I be your choice I will make a faithful canvass. If elected will discharge the duties of said office to the best of my ability. Look, work and act for the party and the good of the county. If another is better qualified and more worthy, make your choice. Your Obedt servant,
HENRY D. SMITH.

State Convention.

Gov. J. P. St. John was re-nominated on the first regular ballot, receiving 229 votes. A motion to make unanimous was not passed. Dispatches received Thursday evening state that D. W. Finney, of Woodson county, was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor.

The indications become more favorable each week for a "solid north."

Hon. John R. Goodin addressed the people of Lawrence last Saturday evening.

The probabilities are that the "stuffing" will be taken out of the census returns of some of the Southern States.

Shakespeare wrote the character of old Shylock without knowing the candidate of the Democracy for Vice President.

The San Francisco Alta ridicules the idea that any State on the Pacific coast will vote against Garfield and Arthur.

The "principles" for which Lee and Jackson fought, were secession and a confederacy, the corner stone of which was human slavery.

A watermelon weighing seventy-five pounds was on exhibition in North Topeka last week. No wonder the exodusters make for Topeka.

The fact that English has not foreclosed any mortgages for several weeks is said to be a refreshing "change" to the poor men of Indianapolis.

None of the liberal offers made by leading Republicans to have Wade Hampton repeat his Staunton speech in the North have as yet been accepted by that gentleman.

Whenever you begin figuring up electoral votes with a Democrat the first sentence he utters is "To begin with there is a solid south"—and after the election it will be to end with.

Quite a number of distinguished visitors from other States will be in attendance at the exhibition at Bismark Grove this month. Allen county should be represented there by all means.

Mr. Walter T. Blaine, son of Senator Blaine, and Oliver T. Morton, son of Indiana's War Governor, are stopping their respective States and doing good work for the success of the Republican party.

The Democratic candidate for congress in Pennsylvania have been compelled to announce themselves in favor of protection, thus placing themselves in opposition to the National Democratic Platform.

The Senatorial Convention at Garrett last week passed off quietly and pleasantly, resulting in the nomination of Hon. E. H. Funston. There was some opposition from the lower part of the county, in the convention, but we are pleased to say that it was nothing personally against him, and will not come to the surface during the campaign. In fact while contending strongly against his nomination yet they all admitted his sterling integrity and capability. It was only because of favoring a candidate of their own, that any one opposed Mr. Funston.

We heartily agree with the Union, that had Mr. Keplinger come out earlier the race would have been closer. We have had dealings with him and know him to be a first-class man in all respects. And he is the kind of a man who, when met by honorable opposition, will acquiesce in the result. His friends did not present his name to the convention, and in fact, we do not think he particularly desired the race, but simply allowed his name to be used because it was the strongest in the 53d District.

There can be no question but that the honorable and straight-forward canvass made by Mr. Funston, will unite the party in this county solidly for him. He is absolutely without reproach, and will poll by all odds the largest vote of any man on the ticket this fall.

Hon. L. K. Kirk received three votes in the convention. It is but justice to him to say that he was not a candidate and would not be. Of course Anderson county could have secured his nomination by throwing to him their eleven votes. That they did not do so showed the honorable and manly act of that county and of Mr. Kirk. And it is to be hoped that the feeling and harmony heretofore existing between the Republicans of Anderson and Allen counties may continue in the future.

The Democrats have denounced the Louisiana Returning Board as the most iniquitous of institutions, a mere legal device for monstrous fraud, unconstitutional and wicked. There are a great many persons who have been persuaded by Democratic declamation that the Louisiana Returning Board was the means of defrauding the country of a rightful result at the last election. But the Democrats have been in complete possession of Louisiana for three years. They have, of course, repealed this wicked law? Far from it. They were in power of the State in 1872, and they made the law more stringent. They are in power now, and the law is unrepaled. Like many laws passed to protect the oppressed, it may be enforced so as to increase oppression. The Louisiana Returning Board was a Republican device to protect bulldozed districts. It will now be used by Democrats to annul Republican majorities. The virtuous horror affected by Democrats was a campaign trick. The Democratic Returning Board will do its share in making the South "solid" by throwing out Republican majorities wherever they shall seem to throw doubt upon the result. We shall hear no more from Democrats of the appalling wickedness of the Returning Board.

The Democratic State convention, which met at Topeka last week, nominated the following ticket: For Governor, E. G. Ross of Douglas; Lieut. Governor, Thomas George of Sumner; Secretary of State, John M. Griffin of Johnson; Auditor of State, J. G. Neumuller of Saline; State Treasurer, Theodore Weichselbaum of Riley; Attorney General, A. L. Herzford of Norton; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Miss Sarah A. Brown of Douglas; Associate Justice, U. R. Wagstaff of Miami. In commenting on the above nominations the Leavenworth Times says: "The nomination of E. G. Ross for Governor by the Democrats is unquestionably the weakest nomination that the party could have made, and will insure from forty to fifty thousand Republican majority in the State. The balance of the ticket gives evidence of weakness and indecision on the part of the convention. The longer the Democracy lasts the less sense they manifest. The aggregate political judgment of all the delegates to Democratic conventions in Kansas wouldn't give brains to one ordinary Republican."

One week from next Saturday, September 11th, the Republicans of Allen county, through their representatives chosen at the primaries, will put in nomination candidates for the various county offices to be filled this fall. And as the State, Congressional and Senatorial nominations have already been made, we would suggest the propriety and the importance of at least one Republican club being organized in every township in the county. The Republican majority in Kansas is so large that we cannot expect to get up the same interest and enthusiasm as will prevail in the doubtful States, but it is important that we thoroughly organize, and that we elect our candidates by increased majorities. Campaign documents can easily be secured for distribution, and good speakers can be had to address the different clubs that may be organized. Let ever Republican do his best, not only to make Kansas the banner State this fall, but to make Allen county one of the banner counties of the State.

The settlement of the difficulty with the Ute Indians will be delayed by the recent death of their chief Ouray. This is the first instance that we call to memory in which it was unfortunate for our Government that an Indian died. Ouray doubtless deserved the title of "the good chief."

Hampton's Speech.

The Inter-State referring to the extract we publish from Wade Hampton's speech at Staunton, Va., July 25, says that the New York Herald publishes the speech entire, and there is nothing like such language in it.

Possibly the editor of the Inter-State is a more bitter Democrat than the editor of the Staunton (Va.) Valley Virginian which fully reported the speech and made favorable editorial comments, but we doubt it. We now republish first, the extract published last month; second, what the Virginian says he said; third, the editorial comment. And our readers can make their own comments.

"Consider what Lee and Jackson would do were they alive. THESE ARE THE SAME PRINCIPLES FOR WHICH THEY FOUGHT FOR FOUR YEARS. Remember the men who poured forth their life blood on Virginia's soil, and do not abandon them now. Remember that upon your vote depends the success of the Democratic ticket."—(Wade Hampton, at the meeting in the interest of Democratic harmony in Virginia, at Staunton, July 26, 1880.)

"Pause before you cast your vote. Think how Lee would have voted. Think what Jackson would have done before he would cast a vote calculated to divide his beloved Virginia. I ask you to remember those who have died on your soil, AND TO REMEMBER THAT THE PRINCIPLES THEY DIED FOR ARE AGAIN ON TRIAL TO-DAY."—(What Wade Hampton said, as reported in The Staunton Virginian, of July 30, 1880, the only Democratic paper in Staunton that published the substance of his address.)

"General Hampton declared that the Democratic party, under Hancock's lead, was fighting for the same principles that Lee and Jackson fought for, and for which the Southern soldiers died. There was no qualification in the terms used. His appeal was for harmony in the Democratic party in Virginia, and to make it effective he brought up the war-remembrance, to touch the feelings of the audience."—From The Staunton Virginian, the paper from which the first quotation above is taken.

The Democratic State Ticket.

We are not certain that it is worth while to make any remarks about the ticket nominated at Topeka on Thursday. We are not sure that it is intended as a ticket at all. We judge from a resolution adopted by the convention, that all the candidates named are to hold themselves ready to withdraw at any moment that the bosses may think proper to effect a fusion with the Greenbackers. We do not know that one of these Democratic gentlemen's name will be mentioned in connection with any ticket a week hence. To get up a hoodoo of this kind would be eminently characteristic of the Kansas Democracy, an outfit which is eternally rigging up with immense care traps that catch nobody.

Of the nominee for Governor little need be said. There is little to be said. To say much would be to exhaust the subject. Major Ross is one of those happy and pleasant gentlemen whom nobody wants for anything; he is a peg that there seems to be no hole for. No considerable number of persons wanted him to be United States Senator, either by appointment or election; and nobody wanted him to get back again. It would have been the same if he had not voted against the impeachment. He was nominated at Topeka because the convention all at once conceived the brilliant and correct idea that it made no difference who was nominated, and acted accordingly. Next week Governor Ross may be off the track, and Governor Vrooman, we believe that is the Greenback gentleman's name, may be the Fusion candidate. A hole will be substituted for a vacancy.

As to most of the names on the ticket the reader is referred to the census enumerators. They, perhaps, can tell anything about Lieut. Gov. George, of Sumner county, and Secretary of State Griffin, of Johnson county, and Auditor Neumuller, of Saline county, and Attorney-General Herzford. Miss Sarah Brown, of Douglas county, nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, is rather more fortunate. She is the present Superintendent of Douglas county; is the daughter of the venerable Brook Farm Abolitionist and a sister of ex-Congressman William H. Brown, of Kansas. Miss Brown's Democracy is probably not of a deep-seated or malignant type. We may add that we have heard of Associate Justice Wagstaff. He is known like a stamp, a bump on an ancient log by the wayside, a section corner stone, and such like objects, merely because he has been in one place a long time.

This is the ticket: Is it not also a joke?—Atchison Champion.

Senatorial Convention.

The Senatorial Convention for this, the 17th District, comprising the counties of Allen and Anderson, occurred on Wednesday. All the townships in the District were represented. Hon. E. H. Funston, of Carlyle, this county was nominated on the first formal ballot. He was in the field early, is a good worker and his hosts of friends in both counties, and to these facts do we attribute his easy victory. Funston is a good man, possessing strong convictions as a Republican. He has been in the lower house two or three terms and during one of them held the responsible position of speaker. He will prove a useful man in the Senate.

Mr. Keplinger would not allow his name to come before the Convention. Had Mr. Keplinger come out early and developed the strength that he possesses in both counties, there would have been a lively race in the Convention.—Humboldt Union.

The temperance camp meeting at Bismark Grove, Lawrence, closed last Sunday. A number of the best temperance workers in the United States were present, and the attendance was quite large, still not as large as it would have been but for the continued rains. Quite a sensation was created Sunday afternoon by ex-Gov. Robinson taking the stand and making a vigorous speech in opposition to the prohibition amendment. He was answered by the satisfaction of all the temperance people by John B. Finch, of Bismark, and Gov. St. John. The meeting has been instrumental in arousing an enthusiasm among the friends of the amendment that will doubtless tell at the election.

The reports from Indiana are decidedly encouraging for the Republicans. The Republicans of that State have a complete organization, have a strong State and local tickets, and are confident of success.

Miss Sarah E. Brown, of Douglas county, Democratic candidate for State Superintendent ought to see the Kansas City Times for libel. The outrageous profile cut they published will utterly ruin her chance for a vote.

Ben. Butler has publicly proclaimed that he will not make his usual race for Governor of Massachusetts this fall. And yet most people think that he is lying, and look upon his late speech as a bid for the Democratic nomination.

The United States Census Supervisor makes the following report as to the population of Kansas: First district, 256,336; second district, 335,620; third district, 404,344. The population of the State at the time of taking the enumeration, the first of June, 1880, 996,300. Our population at this time is undoubtedly one million.

Attorney-General Devens asks a question which is well worth considering. In brief, it is this: If it is so difficult now to punish crime and fraud against the United States in the Southern States, what would be the condition of the South if the National Government should pass under the control of ex-Rebels?

It is getting quite common for reformers, of late, to urge women to accompany their husbands to billiard and bowling rooms. Whether the cause of reform will be advanced by it remains to be seen, but it is reported as being very fashionable at Long Branch this summer for the ladies to frequent bowling rooms and billiard halls to take part in the games.

There will be a national convention of Republican Clubs held at Indianapolis September 15th. Every organized Republican club in the country is requested to send one delegate. These organizations are effective in keeping the Republican party well organized, and for the distribution of sound political doctrine. It is to be hoped that this national convention may be the means of increasing the number of organized Republican clubs in every State in the Union.

We have received a copy of the biennial report of State Treasurer Francis, showing the transactions of the treasurer's office for the period commencing July 1, 1878, and ending June 30, 1880. It is a book of 185 pages and contains 58 tabular statements. The tables make up nearly the entire report, showing in detail all the items of money paid into the treasury during the two years, their distributions to the various funds to which they belong, and their disbursement for the object to which they are applicable.

General Wade Hampton writes to a mass meeting at Washington that he "would be glad to attend," but he "really thinks it is best for our party" that he keep silent. We doubt not the party of the North will utter a volunuous amen to the sentiment. The real attitude of the Democratic party of the South is what the Northern leaders are the most anxious to hide. The order has gone out to muzzle the mouths of the Southern orators. "It is best for our party that I keep silent, as everything nowadays is so much misrepresented." Yes General Hampton, stenographers and newspaper men are dangerous enemies when men's words are life in one latitude and death in another.—Inter Ocean.

Gen. Grant will cast his first Republican vote this fall for a presidential candidate. In speaking to a mass meeting at Galena, he said: "I did not intend to speak when I came here to-night. I am very much like Judge Orton. I never made a Republican speech in my life or any kind of a political speech. I am sure it would require some time and much preparation to make one of any length. I can of course go a little further than Judge Orton, and say that I never voted a Republican ticket in my life, and but one Democratic ticket, and that was quite a number of years ago, when I was quite a young man. But I will pledge you my word here to-night that if I am spared, although I shall be at some distance from you, the second day of November, I shall return to Galena to cast one Republican vote for president of the United States, and I hope the city of Galena will cast a round Republican vote such as it has never cast before."
